Social study, Religious and Culture

Matthayom 1 Second Semester

20 Hours 0.5 credits

This course will introduce students to the ancient Thai territories and the Kingdoms that governed them, especially focusing upon the foundation of the Sukhothai Kingdom.

Within the subject learn about the foundation of the Sukhothai Kingdom, following its development through; political, economic, social and cultural contexts.

The method of learning will combine multimodal classroom lectures and group discussions.

The beginning of learning will start with a survey of Thai history, examining the most important events and individuals through themes such as; religion, nation building and political change.

This survey will help students navigate modern Thailand with a more clear understanding of its origins and as a historical entity. The study of Sukhothai's rich heritage will further expand their knowledge of Thai culture and its traditions.
