Social study, Religious and Culture

Matthayom 2 Second Semester

Total score 100 marks

20 Hours 0.5 credits

This course will introduce students to the Ayudhaya and Thonburi kingdoms, especially focusing upon the foundation of the Ayudhaya Kingdom; the development of the kingdom, important conflicts and the restoration of the kingdom.

Within the subject students will learn about the foundations of the Ayudhaya Kingdom, following its development through; political, economic, social and cultural contexts.

The method of learning will combine multimodal classroom lectures and group discussions.

The beginning of learning will start with a survey of Thai history, examining the most important events and individuals through themes such as; religion, nation building and political change.

This survey will help students navigate modern Thailand with a more clear understanding of its origins and as a historical entity. The study of Ayudhaya and Thonburi kingdoms will further expand their knowledge of Thai culture and its traditions.
