

LEARNER RECORD

Learner Details

Name: Phimpaphai Chiuphae

E-mail: pammybam95@gmail.com

Country: Thailand

Total Study Time:

1:43:09

Certified Courses

Beginner Level English - Food

This free online English course will first teach you how to use the articles 'a' and 'an' properly, which is really easy if you know your English vowels and consonants. You will then learn how to request something politely using the verbs 'can' and 'would like' so you won't sound like a bossy tourist. You will also learn how to reply to questions politely. This will really please the person you are talking to, and might even earn you a little discount! You will then learn how to form 'Wh...

Score
96%

Completed On
2021-07-23

Dr. Eric Cobett

Director of Certification

LEARNER RECORD

Enrolled Courses

Progress
5%

Japanese Language: Introduction to Japanese Phrases

This free online Japanese course will first introduce you to Japanese phrases that talk about people, places, and things, including cost and purchases. You will practice the pronunciation of Japanese words and learn Japanese numbers up to 100. You will also study the Japanese words used for the location of objects such as Kore(this), Sore(that), and Are(that over there) as well as learn the use of Dare(who).

Progress
52%

English Vocabulary and Pronunciation

Everyone finds some English words difficult to pronounce sometimes. The good news is, if you practice regularly then speaking English correctly and fluently can become effortless. This free English language course covers the vocabulary most commonly used in shopping, cooking, restaurants, and sports. It also teaches the correct pronunciation of the alphabet and silent letters, so that you can understand the more difficult aspects of English pronunciation.

Dr. Eric Cobett

Director of Certification

