

EXERCISE : Conditional Sentences

What type is it? Fill in the correct form of the verb.

1. I don't suppose I _____ ever _____ a million euro. But if I won a million, I _____ around the world. (win / travel)
2. Yesterday it snowed. The pupils _____ at home if it _____ . (not stay / not snow)
3. She didn't do her homework. If she _____ her homework, the teacher _____ so angry. (do / not be)
4. She feels ill. I _____ to the doctor's if I _____ her. (go / be)
5. John will take the DLR. If he _____ the DLR, he _____ home more quickly. (take / be)
6. I hope the doctor will give her some tablets. If she _____ the tablets then she _____ better. (take / feel)
7. She didn't go to the doctor's. He _____ her to the hospital if she _____ in great pain. (send / be)
8. Peter will light a campfire. If he _____ a campfire, the children _____ . (light / sing)
9. Peter doesn't have enough money to buy a car. If he _____ enough, he _____ a Meneghini. (have / buy)
10. Jake didn't buy any flowers. If he _____ some flowers, Lucy _____ happy. (buy / be)
11. They didn't win the football game. They _____ if their best player _____ there. (win / be)

12. She is very lazy. If I _____ her, I _____ some homework. (be / do)

13. John went to Germany. He _____ if Hans _____
him. (not go / not invite)

14. John had an accident. If he _____ so much, he _____ _____ the accident. (not drink / not have)

15. We are saving our money. We _____ to France next year if we _____ enough money. (go / save)

16. I did not feel ill any more, but if I _____ ill yesterday, I _____ to the doctor's. (feel / go)

17. Maria took up English. If Maria _____ English was so difficult, she _____ it up. (know / not take)

18. The computer helped me to do my homework. If it _____ me, I
_____ it. (not help / not do)

19. My friend does not have a job. If I _____ her, I _____ at the advertisements in the newspaper. (be / look)

20. She hopes she will have time to go to London. If she _____ to London, she _____ the Tower. (go / visit)
